

BPF Brexit Snap Poll

January 2020

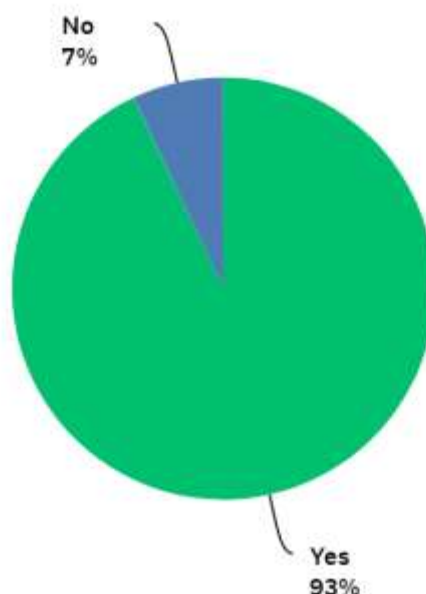

Introduction

The following responses were provided by members of the British Plastics Federation in response to a snap poll that was sent to them on January 31 2020, the day the UK exited the European Union.

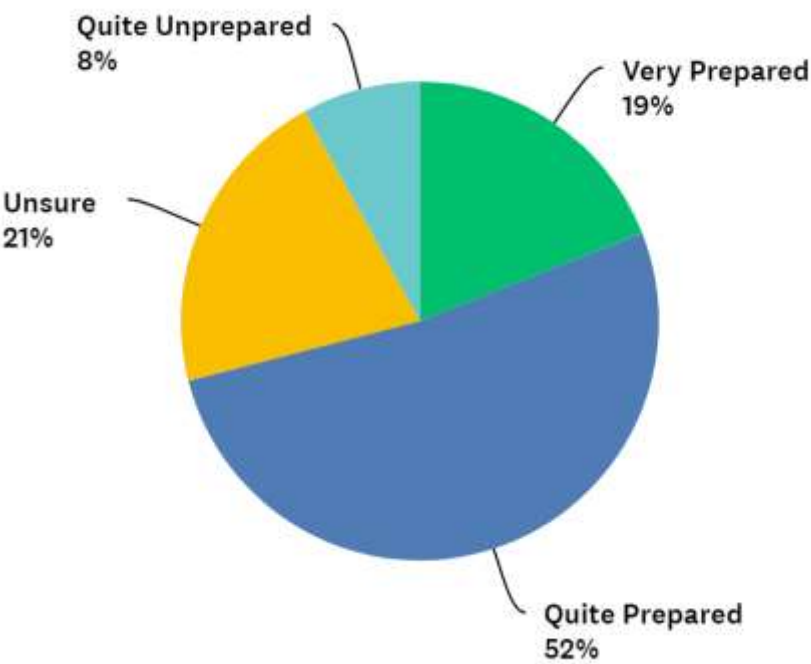

In your opinion, how likely is it that the UK Government will agree a trade deal with the EU by the 31 December 2020 deadline?

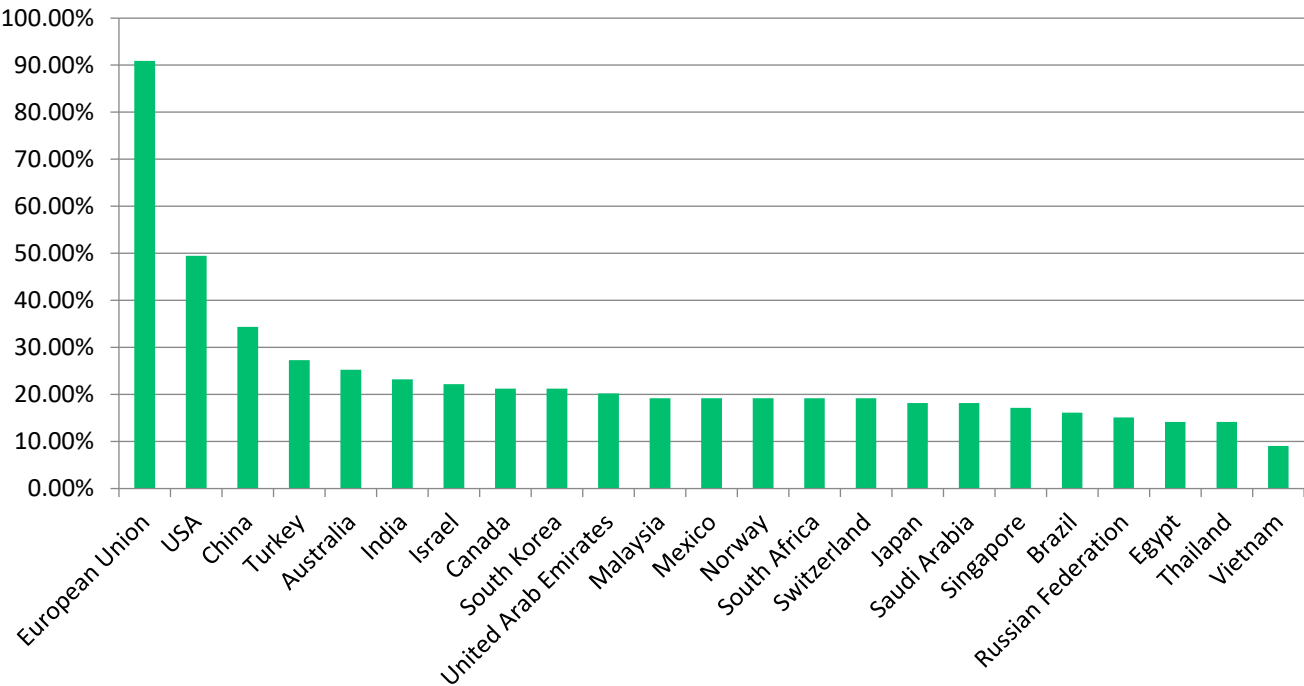

Do you see the EU being as important for trade for your company after the end of the transitional deal as it is now?

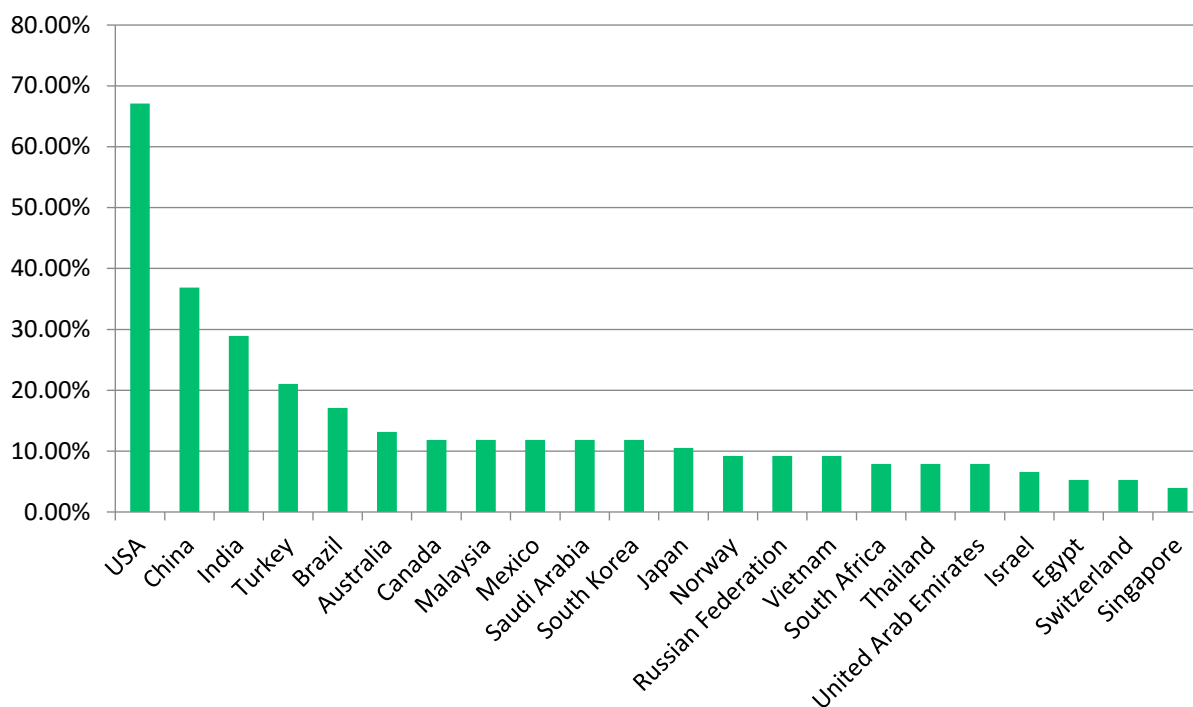

How prepared is your business for leaving the EU in December?

Which markets does your business currently trade with?

Which non-EU markets does your business see as contributing significantly to future growth? (Please pick up to 5 options)
